

easy hinge® PVC Strip Doors and Bulk Roll Materials

Easyhinge PVC strip doors and partitions are a cost-effective way to save energy, promote safety, improve employee comfort, and, minimize drafts through all types of open doorways.

Made from the highest quality vinyl material, Flexon Strip Doors can be custom-designed to your application by using a variety of strip widths, thicknesses, textures, and, temperature ranges. Available in three standard product grades, each PVC material is formulated to meet current USDA requirements with meat, poultry, and dairy products for incidental contact.

In addition, FLEXON offers a wide range of specialized PVC materials for use in welding screens, hazardous environment, and, highly demanding industrial applications.

Best of all, sizes and designs are as varied as your imagination. Whatever your application, we have a PVC strip door product that's right for you.

Standard Features

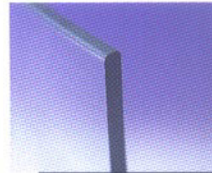

Whatever the desired use, FLEXON PVC Strip Doors offer you these features and benefits for added value and the highest product quality:

Visual Clarity

increased visibility and safety.

All PVC material is made with special light stabilizing ingredients to help limit fading and yellowing due to ultraviolet light exposure. The result is superior clarity for

Rounded Safety Edges

All PVC strip materials feature rounded safety edges to reduce the risk of injuries and the likelihood of tearing caused by passing loads.

