HÖRMANN FLEXON WELCOMES C.J. SZELESTEY

Hörmann Flexon is pleased to welcome C.J. Szelestey as its new technical draftsman. C.J. brings with him a specialized background in computer aided drafting and design as well as electrical and mechanical drafting.

Mark Permigiani, Vice President of Manufacturing comments: "C.J.'s specialized background is helping to streamline daily operations in the engineering department as we continually grow to meet the demands of our customers. We will continue to see increased efficiency in our overall technical support department with C.J. on board."
